

Detailed Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Introduction

■ Introduction	2
□ Overview	2
▪ The ACL	2
□ Objectives of the ACL	3
▪ To ‘improve consumer wellbeing’	3
□ Scope of the ACL	4
▪ The ACL is not intended to ‘cover the field’	4
□ Key changes made by the ACL	4
▪ A robust approach to reform	4
□ Key benefits of the ACL	4
▪ A saving of ‘$1.5 billion’ to ‘$4.5 billion’	4
■ ACL regulators.....	5
□ ‘One law, multiple regulators’ model	5
▪ A consistent application of the ACL	5
▪ Guiding principles of the ACL regulators.....	5
▪ The setting of priorities of ACL regulators	6
□ ACCC	6
▪ The role of the ACCC	6
▪ The strategies of the ACCC	6
▪ ACCC’s enforcement priorities	7
▪ ACCC’s enduring priorities.....	7
▪ ACCC’s compliance ‘pyramid’	7
▪ ACCC’s obligations as a model litigant	8
▪ Avoid a ‘trial by ambush’	9
□ ASIC	10
▪ The role of ASIC	10
□ State and territory ACL regulators	10
▪ The role of fair trading commissions	10
■ Jurisdiction of the courts	11
□ Federal Court of Australia.....	11
□ Federal Circuit Court	11
□ State and territory courts	11
■ Jurisdiction of tribunals	11
□ New South Wales	11
▪ NCAT	11
□ Other jurisdictions	13
■ Crown immunity	13
□ The Crown	13
□ Meaning of Crown immunity	14
□ Meaning of derivative Crown immunity	14
□ Application of the ACL to the Commonwealth Crown	14
▪ ‘Authority of the Commonwealth’	15
▪ ‘Carries on a business’	15
▪ ‘In so far as’	17
□ Application of the ACL to the state and territory Crowns	18
■ Extended application of the ACL to conduct outside Australia	18
□ Extraterritorial application of the ACL	18
▪ The ACL can protect foreign citizens	18
▪ ‘Bodies corporate incorporated’	18
▪ ‘Carrying on business within Australia’	19
▪ ‘Carries on business within Australia’ simpliciter	20
▪ ‘Carrying on business within Australia’ through a subsidiary	20

- 'Australian citizens' 21
- 'Persons ordinarily resident within Australia' 21

Chapter 2: Definitions and Key Concepts

- Definition of person 24
 - Legal and natural persons 24
 - Relevance of a person 24
- Definition of consumer 24
 - Acquiring goods or services as a consumer 24
 - Relevance of a consumer 24
 - Different ways a person can be a consumer 25
 - Monetary threshold 26
 - Goods priced at monetary threshold or less 26
 - A composite transaction or separate transactions 27
 - Goods of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption 27
 - A broad meaning 27
 - The threshold test 28
 - 'Of a kind' 28
 - 'Ordinarily' 28
 - 'Personal use' 30
 - 'Domestic use' 30
 - 'Household use' 30
 - 'Consumption' 30
 - Instances of goods of a kind ordinarily acquired 31
 - Instances of goods not of a kind ordinarily acquired 31
 - Vehicles and trailers acquired to transport goods on public roads 31
 - A subjective test 31
 - Exceptions to acquiring goods as a consumer 32
 - Not all commercial purposes are exempted 32
 - 'Re-supply' of goods 32
 - 'Using them up or transforming them' 32
 - Acquiring services as a consumer 33
 - Different ways a person can be a 'consumer' 33
 - Instances of services of a kind ordinarily acquired 33
 - Mixed supply of goods or services 33
 - Determining price 33
- Definition of corporation 33
 - Constitutional powers 33
 - Types of corporation 33
 - Definition of a foreign corporation 34
 - A corporation incorporated overseas 34
 - Definition of a trading corporation 34
 - A corporation that trades or has the purpose to trade 34
 - The former 'purpose of incorporation' test 35
 - The 'substantial current activities' test 35
 - The two and three-stage tests 35
 - A question of fact and degree 35
 - Meaning of trading 36
 - Incidental trading 36
 - Instances of a trading corporation 36
 - Instances of not a trading corporation 37
 - Definition of a financial corporation 37
 - Borrows, lends or otherwise deals in finance 37
 - The 'substantial current activities' test 38
- Definitions of subsidiary, holding and related bodies corporate 38

□ Section 6 of the ACL.....	38
▪ A deeming provision.....	38
□ Section 4A of the CCA.....	38
▪ A deeming provision.....	38
□ Definition of subsidiary.....	40
▪ No definition of subsidiary.....	40
▪ ‘Composition of board’ test.....	40
▪ ‘Voting control’ test.....	41
▪ ‘Allotted share capital’ test.....	41
□ Definition of related bodies corporate.....	41
▪ No definition of related bodies corporate.....	41
▪ Statutory corporations.....	43
■ ‘In trade or commerce’.....	43
□ Meaning of ‘in trade or commerce’.....	43
▪ No statutory definition of ‘in trade or commerce’.....	43
▪ Conduct must bear a ‘trading or commercial character’.....	43
▪ Potential trade or commerce is insufficient.....	44
▪ ‘In trade or commerce’ not confined to representor.....	44
▪ ‘Trade’ or ‘commerce’ are not ‘terms of art’.....	45
▪ ‘Trade’ or ‘commerce’ are terms of the widest import.....	45
▪ ‘Trade’ or ‘commerce’ does not exist in the abstract.....	46
□ Conduct must be ‘in’ trade or commerce.....	46
▪ The central conception.....	46
▪ Two views on interpretation.....	47
□ Specific areas of ‘in trade or commerce’.....	48
▪ The dividing line can be a fine one.....	48
▪ Private sale of land.....	49
▪ Private sale of business.....	51
▪ Private sale of goods.....	52
▪ Education.....	53
▪ Internal communications.....	54
▪ Employment contracts.....	54
▪ Statutory bodies.....	55
▪ Religious statements.....	56
▪ Political statements.....	56
▪ Lobbying and industrial messages.....	57
▪ Public statements in advertisements.....	58
▪ Professional services.....	59
▪ Legal advice and litigation.....	59
▪ Without prejudice negotiations.....	60
■ Other key definitions and concepts.....	60
□ ‘Goods’.....	60
▪ ‘Ships, aircraft and other vehicles’.....	62
▪ ‘Animals (including fish)’.....	62
▪ ‘Minerals, trees and crops’.....	62
▪ ‘Gas and electricity’.....	63
▪ ‘Computer software’.....	64
▪ ‘Second-hand goods’.....	64
▪ ‘Any component part of, or accessory to, goods’.....	64
□ ‘Services’.....	65
□ A supply of ‘goods’ or a supply of ‘services’?.....	68
□ ‘Acquire’ (and ‘acquisitions’).....	69
□ ‘Sale by auction’.....	70
□ ‘Supply’ (and ‘re-supply’).....	70
□ Donation.....	71
□ ‘Engage in conduct’.....	72
□ ‘Manufacturer’.....	73

□ ‘Severability’	76
------------------------	----

Chapter 3: Primary Contravener and Accessorial Liability

■ Introduction.....	80
□ Overview	80
▪ Primary and ancillary liability under the ACL.....	80
▪ Accessorial liability under the ACL	80
▪ Accessorial liability without the primary contravener in proceedings.....	80
▪ Proof of the contravention without the primary contravener in proceedings.....	80
▪ Liability of corporate and non-corporate principals	81
▪ Civil pecuniary penalties	81
■ Section 2 of the ACL.....	81
□ Accessorial liability	81
▪ Definition of ‘involved’ in a contravention	81
▪ Knowledge requirement in context of criminal cases.....	82
▪ Knowledge requirement in context of anti-competitive agreements.....	83
▪ Knowledge requirement in context of misleading or deceptive conduct	84
▪ Knowledge requirement in context of unconscionable conduct.....	84
■ ‘Aided, abetted, counselled or procured’	85
□ Meaning of ‘aided, abetted, counselled or procured’	85
▪ A long history in criminal law	85
▪ ‘Aided or abetted’	85
▪ ‘Counselled or procured’	85
▪ Difference between ‘aiding or abetting’ and ‘counselling or procuring’.....	86
□ Elements of ‘aided, abetted, counselled or procured’	86
▪ Knowledge of the essential facts	87
▪ Intentional assistance or encouragement	87
■ ‘Induced’.....	88
□ Meaning of ‘Induced’	88
▪ Some act of compulsory or persuasion.....	88
□ Elements of ‘induced’	89
▪ Affirmative or positive act or course of conduct	89
▪ Actual inducement	89
■ ‘Knowingly concerned in’ or ‘party to’	90
□ Meaning of ‘knowingly concerned in’ or ‘party to’	90
▪ ‘Knowingly concerned in’	90
▪ ‘Party to’	91
▪ ‘In any way, directly or indirectly’	91
□ Elements of ‘knowingly concerned in’, or ‘party to’	91
▪ Knowledge of the essential facts	92
▪ Intentional participation in the contravention	93
■ ‘Conspired with others’	93
□ Meaning of ‘conspiracy’	93
▪ An agreement to carry out a non-trivial unlawful act	93
□ Elements of ‘conspiracy’	94
▪ Single physical element.....	95
▪ Default fault element of intention	98
■ Attempt to contravene.....	98
□ Meaning of ‘attempt to contravene’	98
▪ An attempt to contravene that never succeeded.....	98
□ Elements of ‘attempt to contravene’	99
▪ Mental element.....	99
▪ Physical element	101
■ ‘Attempt to induce’	103
□ Meaning of ‘attempt to induce’	103
▪ An attempt to induce another to contravene that never succeeded.....	103

□	Elements of ‘attempt to induce’	103
▪	Mental element.....	103
▪	Physical element	104
■	Section 139B of the CCA	104
□	Conduct by directors, employees or agents	104
▪	The state of mind and conduct of the body corporate.....	104
□	Key concepts	105
▪	‘Director’	105
▪	‘Employee’	105
▪	‘Agent’	105
▪	‘Actual authority’	107
▪	Actual express authority	108
▪	Actual implied authority	108
▪	‘Apparent authority’	109
■	Section 139B(1) of the CCA.....	110
□	Attribution of state of mind	110
▪	The ‘intention’ of the body corporate	110
■	Section 139B(2) of the CCA.....	111
□	Attribution of conduct	111
▪	Conduct engaged in on behalf of a body corporate	111
▪	‘On behalf of’	111
▪	No vicarious liability	112
▪	On a ‘frolic of their own’	112
■	Section 139C of the CCA	113
□	Conduct by employees or agents	113
▪	The state of mind and conduct of the non-corporate	113
■	Section 139C(1) of the CCA.....	113
□	Attribution of state of mind	113
▪	The ‘intention’ of a non-corporate	113
■	Section 139C(2) of the CCA.....	114
□	Attribution of conduct	114
▪	Conduct engaged in on behalf of a non-corporate.....	114
■	Section 139C(3) of the CCA.....	114
□	Convicted of an offence	114
▪	Where a person is not liable to imprisonment	114

Chapter 4: Misleading or Deceptive Conduct and General Principles

■	Section 18 of the ACL	117
□	Overview	117
▪	The general protection provision	117
▪	A norm of conduct	118
▪	Free from the shackles of the common law	118
□	Key concepts	119
▪	‘Person’	119
▪	‘In trade or commerce’	119
▪	‘Engage in conduct’	119
■	Meaning of ‘misleading or deceptive conduct’	119
□	The plain and natural meaning of ‘misleading’ and ‘deceptive’.....	119
▪	No statutory definition.....	119
□	Induces or is capable of inducing error.....	120
▪	Threshold test.....	120
▪	A question of fact	121
▪	Onus of proof	121
□	Mere confusion or wonderment	122
■	Meaning of ‘likely to mislead or deceive’	125
□	No need to prove that a person was actually misled	125

▪ A 'real or not remote chance or possibility' to mislead or deceive	125
■ Assessment of misleading or deceptive conduct	127
□ The 'two-step' and 'four-step' analysis	127
■ The person who misleads or deceives.....	128
□ The conduct of the respondent.....	128
□ Two or more persons engaging in the same misleading conduct.....	128
■ The person who is misled or deceived	129
□ The person does not have to be a consumer	129
□ Identifying the relevant class	129
□ The four-step analysis to identify the relevant class	130
▪ First step of identification process	130
▪ Second step of identification process	131
▪ Third step of identification process.....	134
▪ Fourth step of identification process	134
□ Lack of reasonable care	135
□ Doctrine of erroneous assumption.....	136
■ General principles of misleading or deceptive conduct.....	137
□ Conduct must be viewed as a whole	137
▪ Context is critical	137
▪ Context in negotiations	138
▪ Context in documents	139
▪ Context in advertisements	139
□ Multiple meanings	139
▪ Each meaning must be tested	139
▪ The word 'free'	140
□ Intention.....	141
▪ Honesty can be misleading.....	141
□ Spoken words.....	142
▪ A degree of precision	142
□ Literal truths.....	143
▪ A literal truth can be misleading	143
□ Half-truths	144
▪ A half-truth can be misleading	144
▪ A half-truth is sometime no better than a blatant lie	145
□ Silence	146
▪ Silence can be misleading	146
▪ Silence is not to be given a special category	148
▪ Mere silence.....	148
▪ No general duty to speak.....	150
▪ Silence and the common law	151
▪ Silence and equity.....	151
▪ Pleading Silence	152
□ Specific instances of silence	152
▪ Silence and safety risks of goods or services.....	152
▪ Silence and safety risks at work	152
▪ Silence and risks in business.....	152
▪ Silence and failure to mention a subsequent change	153
□ Opinions	153
▪ Statement of opinion	153
▪ Statement of fact.....	154
▪ Statement of opinions versus statement of facts	154
▪ Lay opinion	154
▪ Expert opinion	155
□ Future representations	156
▪ Predictions, forecasts or projections	156
▪ Reasonable grounds	157
▪ Contractual promises	158

- Opinions with respect to a future matter 159
- Section 4 of the ACL 160
 - An interpretative provision 160
 - Pleading s 4 of the ACL 162
 - Meaning of ‘reasonable grounds’ 163
 - Meaning of ‘with respect to’ 165
 - Meaning of ‘future matter’ 165
- Failure to make proper inquiries 168
 - Failure does not absolve liability 168
- Failure to accommodate subsequent changes 169
 - The transitory effect 169
 - Conduct up to some ‘point of sale’ 169
- Passing on information 171
 - The ‘conduit’ defence 171
- Disclaimers and exclusion clauses 175
 - The effect of an exclusion clause 176
 - The effect of a disclaimer 177
- The ‘no exclusion’ principle 180
 - No ‘contracting out’ 180
 - No ‘choice of proper law’ 181
 - No ‘monetary limit’ 181

Chapter 5: Misleading or Deceptive Conduct and Advertising

- Introduction 184
 - Misleading or deceptive conduct in advertising 184
 - Threshold test 184
 - General principles 185
 - Absorb the dominant message 187
 - ‘Enticed into the marketing web’ 188
 - The effects of advertising 188
- Advertising and different communication mediums 189
 - Different mediums make a difference 189
 - Consumers respond differently to different mediums 189
- Advertising campaigns 193
 - The ‘hangover’ effect of multiple advertisements 193
 - Keep the ‘dominant message alive’ 193
 - The ‘featured’ component 194
- Puffery 196
 - Meaning of puffery 196
 - Sales talk 196
 - Classic puffs 198
 - Puffs and advertising of goods 198
 - Puffs and advertising of real property 198
 - Puffs and investments 199
 - Not puffery in advertisements of goods 199
 - Not puffery in advertisements of real property 200
 - Not puffery in investments 200
 - Can puffery be misleading? 202
 - Puffery is generally not misleading 202
 - Puffery can be misleading in certain circumstances 203
 - A spectrum of puffery 203
 - A fine line 203
 - A business is entitled to puff 204
- Advertising and small print 206
 - Sufficient prominence 206
 - The use of small print 206

▪	Factors to determine whether small print is sufficiently prominent.....	206
▪	An advertisement should not be treated like a contract.....	208
▪	Size is important.....	209
■	Advertising and asterisk	210
□	Sufficient prominence.....	210
▪	The use of asterisks.....	210
▪	An asterisk will not always be effective	211
▪	An ‘orphan’ asterisk	212
■	Advertising and labelling	212
□	Inadequate labelling may be misleading	212
▪	The use of labelling	212
▪	Labels can be misleading in many ways.....	215
■	Advertising and packaging.....	215
□	Inadequate packaging can be misleading.....	215
▪	The use of packaging.....	215
▪	Packaging must be viewed in context.....	217
▪	No monopoly on packaging	218
▪	Colour of packaging.....	218
▪	Distinctive packaging.....	220
▪	Packaging can be misleading in many ways.....	220
■	Advertising and location.....	222
□	The nearness of one good to another	222
▪	Competing goods placed side by side.....	222
▪	Competing goods not placed side by side	222
▪	Goods not on display.....	223
■	Advertising and ‘get-up’	223
□	Similar design, colour, shape and size of goods may be misleading	223
▪	Meaning of ‘get-up’.....	223
▪	The rights associated with ‘get-up’	224
▪	A matter of impression	224
▪	No monopoly over the colour of ‘get-up’	226
▪	Reputation in ‘get-up’	226
■	Advertising and the reputation of the good.....	227
□	There is no need for reputation of the good	227
▪	Reputation may be a relevant factor	227
■	Character advertising	228
□	Creating the wrong impression.....	228
▪	Use of character without approval	228
▪	No need to identify exact impression with precision	229
■	Comparative advertising	230
□	Comparative advertising must be truthful and accurate	230
▪	Meaning of comparative advertising	230
▪	No higher burden for comparative advertising	231
▪	Particular care to ensure accuracy.....	232
▪	Particular care when boosting and disparaging.....	232
▪	There must be a basis of fact	233
▪	Compare ‘like with like’	234
■	Disparaging advertising	236
□	Disparaging advertising that is inaccurate may be misleading	236
▪	Compare and discredit or belittle	236
■	Parody advertising	237
□	Parody advertising that is inaccurate may be misleading	237
▪	Ridicule a competitor’s good or service.....	237
▪	The keystone of parody is imitation	238
▪	Mere exaggeration is insufficient	238
■	Business or trading names.....	239
□	No monopoly rights on business or trading names.....	239

▪ A name that has acquired distinctive meaning.....	239
▪ Geographic business or trading name	240
▪ No clear distinction between descriptive and ‘fancy names’	241
▪ The use of an acronym in a business or trading name	242
▪ Descriptive names can become distinctive.....	242
▪ Business or trading names calculated to deceive	243
▪ Ceased using business or trading name.....	243
▪ Registration of business or trading name	243
▪ Business or trading names with secondary meanings.....	243
▪ Business or trading names without secondary meanings	244
■ Trading names of goods or services	244
□ No monopoly rights on the names of goods or services	244
▪ A name that has acquired distinctive meaning.....	244
■ Common field of activity	246
□ No need for ‘common field of activity’ to be misleading	246
▪ Competition between parties is not necessary	246
■ First to enter the market	247
□ A second person to enter the market does not necessarily mislead	247
▪ Marketing similar goods or services	247
■ Two price advertising	248
□ Price comparison	248
▪ Two price advertising is not itself unlawful	248
▪ Must be a genuine saving	248
▪ A reasonable period	249

Chapter 6: Misleading or Deceptive Conduct and the Internet

■ Introduction	254
□ Meaning of the internet.....	254
▪ A global ‘network of networks’ of computers	254
▪ Challenges to misleading conduct online.....	255
■ Misleading or deceptive conduct online	255
□ A ‘person’ online	255
▪ An anonymous person	255
▪ An impersonator	255
□ ‘Engaging in conduct’ online	256
□ ‘In trade or commerce’ online	257
□ ‘Misleading or deceptive’ online.....	259
▪ A unique application	259
▪ Provide relevant information	259
▪ Website text, format and layout	260
▪ Scrolling	260
▪ Hyperlinks (and deep links)	260
▪ Meta tags	260
▪ Framing.....	261
▪ Invading pop-ups	261
▪ Pre-Ticked boxes	261
□ ‘Likely to mislead or deceive’ online	261
▪ No need to prove a person has been misled	261
□ The person who is misled or deceived online	262
▪ Identifying the relevant class of persons	262
▪ The internet defies physical geographic boundaries	263
▪ Cannot control the target audience	264
▪ Identify the knowledge, experience and skill of the user	264
■ Search engines.....	264
□ Meaning of a search engine.....	264
□ Instances of misleading or deceptive conduct	269

■ Domain names.....	270
□ Meaning of a domain name.....	270
▪ A practical definition.....	270
□ Instances of misleading or deceptive conduct.....	272
■ Online advertising.....	275
□ Meaning of online advertising.....	275
▪ Internet advertising.....	275
□ Instances of misleading or deceptive conduct.....	275
■ Online auctions.....	277
□ Meaning of an online auction.....	277
▪ A species of traditional auctions.....	277
□ Instances of misleading or deceptive conduct.....	278
■ Social media.....	281
□ Meaning of social media.....	281
□ Instances of misleading or deceptive conduct.....	281
■ Email.....	285
□ Meaning of email.....	285
□ Instances of misleading or deceptive conduct.....	286
■ Online scams.....	286
□ Meaning of an online scam.....	286
▪ A plethora of scams in Australia.....	286
▪ Types of online scams.....	286
▪ Anti-scam agencies.....	288
▪ Statistics on scams.....	289
□ Instances of misleading or deceptive conduct.....	290
■ Spam.....	292
□ Meaning of spam.....	292
▪ Unsolicited electronic messages.....	292
□ Instances of misleading or deceptive conduct.....	292

Chapter 7: Misleading or Deceptive Conduct and Specific Instances

■ Specific instances of misleading or deceptive conduct.....	295
□ Professions, trade and industries.....	295
▪ No 'carve out'.....	295
□ Legal advice.....	304
▪ Misleading or deceptive conduct and statements of law.....	304
▪ Misleading or deceptive conduct and legal representatives.....	305
▪ Legal advice, where appropriate, should be qualified.....	306
▪ Not required to be legally qualified.....	306
▪ Not all incorrect legal advice is misleading or deceptive.....	306
□ Commercial negotiations.....	307
▪ No general duty to volunteer information.....	307
▪ Bargaining process is not a licence to mislead or deceive.....	308
▪ The ordinary incidents and character of commercial negotiations.....	308
▪ Negotiations must be assessed in a 'practical, realistic way'.....	308
▪ Commercial negotiations and silence.....	309
▪ No duty to explain the terms of the contract.....	310
▪ The right to remain silence is not absolute.....	310
□ Contractual provisions.....	310
▪ Contractual statements may contravene s 18 of the ACL.....	310
□ Groundless threats.....	310
▪ Groundless threats may contravene s 18 of the ACL.....	310
□ Without prejudice negotiations.....	311
▪ The nature of without prejudice privilege.....	311
▪ The need to communicate 'without prejudice'.....	312
▪ The application of without prejudice privilege.....	312

- The scope of without prejudice privilege 312
 - Waiver of without prejudice privilege 312
 - Exceptions to without prejudice privilege 313
 - Without prejudice privilege and s 18 of the ACL 313
 - Legal professional privilege..... 313
 - Legal professional privilege and s 18 of the ACL 313
 - Scientific claims 314
 - Premium and credence claims 314
 - Composition claims 314
 - Health claims 316
 - Animal welfare claims 318
 - Environmental claims 318
 - Religious claims 319
 - Parallel importing..... 319
 - The nature of parallel importing 319
 - Parallel importing and s 18 of the ACL 320
 - Trade marks 320
 - The nature of a trade mark 320
 - Registration of a trade mark 320
 - Registration affords no protection under s 18 of the ACL 321
 - Avoid temptation to compare..... 321
 - Background to s 19 of the ACL 322
 - History of exemption for information providers 322
 - Purpose of exemption for information providers 323
 - Section 19 of the ACL..... 323
 - Application of s 18 to information providers..... 323
 - ‘Media safe harbour’ defence 324
 - Proceedings and onus of proof..... 325
 - Accessorial liability 325
 - Section 19(1) of the ACL 325
 - Exemption for information providers 325
 - Requisite elements of s 19(1) of the ACL 325
 - ‘Publication of a matter’ 325
 - ‘In the course of carrying on business of providing information’ 327
 - Section 19(2) of the ACL 327
 - Exemption does not apply to advertisements..... 327
 - Section 19(3) of the ACL 328
 - Exemption does not apply to commercial interests in goods or services 328
 - ‘in connection with’ 329
 - ‘on behalf of’ 330
 - Section 19(4) of the ACL 330
 - Exemption does not apply to commercial interests in land 330
 - Sections 19(5) and 19(6) of the ACL 330
 - Meaning of an ‘information provider’ 330

Chapter 8: Misleading or Deceptive Conduct and the Common Law

- Tort of passing off..... 333
 - The meaning of passing off..... 333
 - No precise definition of passing off 333
 - The meaning of reverse passing off..... 335
 - A subset of passing off 335
 - The elements of passing off..... 335
 - The ‘classical trinity’ 335
 - Goodwill or reputation 336
 - Misrepresentation 343
 - Damage..... 344

□ The principles of passing off	346
▪ The principles are now well settled	346
▪ The many categories of passing off.....	347
▪ Not every connection amounts to passing off	348
□ Specific instances of passing off	348
▪ Professions, trades and industries	348
□ Tort of passing off vs 18 of the ACL	352
▪ Overlap between passing off and s 18	352
▪ Differences between passing off and s 18	352
▪ Advantages of a claim under s 18	353
■ Tort of deceit	353
□ The meaning of deceit	353
▪ An intentional tort.....	353
□ The elements of deceit	354
▪ False representation.....	354
▪ Knowledge or reckless or careless disregard	355
▪ Intention	356
▪ Reliance	356
▪ Damage.....	356
□ Remedies available for the tort of deceit	357
□ Tort of deceit vs 18 of the ACL.....	357
▪ Advantages of a claim under s 18	357
▪ Disadvantages of a claim under s 18	357
■ Negligent misstatements under tort law	357
□ The meaning of misrepresentation under tort law	357
▪ Duty to take reasonable care	357
□ Remedies available for negligent misstatements under tort law	361
□ Negligent misstatements under tort law vs 18 of the ACL	361
▪ Advantages of a claim under s 18	361
▪ Disadvantages of a claim under s 18	361
■ Injurious falsehood	361
□ The meaning of injurious falsehood	361
▪ Malicious falsehood	361
□ The elements of injurious falsehood	363
▪ False representation.....	363
▪ Publication of representation	364
▪ Malice	365
▪ Actual damage	366
□ Remedies available for injurious falsehood	367
□ Injurious falsehood vs defamation	367
■ Misrepresentations under contract law	369
□ The meaning of misrepresentation under contract law	369
□ The elements of misrepresentation in contract law	370
▪ Representation of fact.....	370
▪ Representation must be false	371
▪ Representation must be made between parties of the contract	372
▪ Inducement	372
□ Types of misrepresentations under contract law	373
▪ Fraudulent misrepresentation	373
▪ Negligent misrepresentation.....	373
▪ Innocent misrepresentation.....	374
□ Remedies available for misrepresentation under contract law	374
□ Misrepresentations under contract law vs 18 of the ACL	374
▪ Advantages of a claim under s 18	374
▪ Disadvantages of a claim under s 18	375

Chapter 9: False or Misleading Representations

■ Introduction	378
□ Overview of s 29 of the ACL	378
▪ The purpose of a specific prohibition	378
▪ Origins of ss 18 and 29	378
▪ Similarities between ss 18 and 29	378
▪ Differences between ss 18 and 29	379
■ Section 29 of the ACL	379
□ False or misleading representations about goods or services	379
□ Key concepts	380
▪ 'Make a representation'	380
▪ 'False'	383
▪ 'Misleading or deceptive' vs 'False or misleading'	384
▪ 'Misleading'	385
▪ 'In connection with'	385
▪ 'In trade or commerce'	385
■ Section 29(1)(a) of the ACL	385
□ Particular standard, quality, value, grade, composition, style, model, history, or use of goods	385
▪ 'Particular'	385
▪ 'Standard'	386
▪ 'Quality'	387
▪ 'Value'	388
▪ 'Grade'	389
▪ 'Composition'	389
▪ 'Style'	390
▪ 'Model'	390
▪ 'History and previous use'	390
■ Section 29(1)(b) of the ACL	391
□ Particular standard, quality, value, grade of services	391
■ Section 29(1)(c) of the ACL	392
□ New goods	392
▪ 'New'	392
■ Section 29(1)(d) of the ACL	394
□ Particular person has agreed to acquire goods or services	394
■ Section 29(1)(e) of the ACL	394
□ Purported testimonials	394
▪ 'Testimonial'	394
▪ Categories of testimonials	395
■ Section 29(1)(f) of the ACL	396
□ Concerning testimonials or purported testimonials	396
■ Section 29(1)(g) of the ACL	396
□ Sponsorship, approval, performance characteristics, etc	396
▪ 'Sponsorship'	397
▪ 'Approval'	397
▪ 'Performance characteristics'	398
▪ 'Accessories'	399
▪ 'Uses or benefits'	400
■ Section 29(1)(h) of the ACL	401
□ Sponsorship, approval or affiliation of persons	401
▪ 'Affiliation'	402
■ Section 29(1)(i) of the ACL	403
□ Price of goods or services	403
▪ 'Price'	403
■ Section 29(1)(j) of the ACL	407
□ Repairs and spare parts of goods	407
■ Section 29(1)(k) of the ACL	407

□	Place of origin (and country of origin)	407
▪	‘Place of origin’	407
▪	‘Made in’	407
▪	‘Last substantial transformation’ test	408
▪	‘Built in’	410
▪	‘Product of’	410
▪	‘Grown in’	411
▪	‘Country of origin’	411
▪	‘Safe harbour’ defences	411
■	Section 29(1)(l) of the ACL	412
□	Need of any goods or services	412
▪	‘Need’	412
■	Section 29(1)(m) of the ACL	413
□	Exclusion of any consumer guarantee, etc	413
▪	‘Condition’	413
▪	‘Warranty’	414
▪	‘Guarantee’	414
▪	‘Right’	418
▪	‘Remedy’	419
■	Section 29(1)(n) of the ACL	419
□	Requirement to pay for a contractual right	419
▪	‘Extended warranties’	419
■	Section 30 of the ACL	420
□	False or misleading representations about sale etc. of land	420
■	Section 31 of the ACL	422
□	Misleading conduct relating to employment	422
■	Section 33 of the ACL	424
□	Misleading conduct as to the nature etc. of goods	424
■	Section 34 of the ACL	426
□	Misleading conduct as to the nature etc. of services	426
■	Section 37 of the ACL	427
□	Misleading representations about certain business activities	427
■	Section 38 of the ACL	428
□	Exemption for information providers	428

Chapter 10: Unconscionable Conduct

■	Introduction	433
□	Legislative history of unconscionable conduct	433
▪	Former provisions of the TPA	433
▪	Current provisions of the ACL	433
■	Section 20 of the ACL	434
□	Unconscionable conduct within the meaning of the unwritten law	434
▪	Purpose of s 20 of the ACL	434
▪	Focus of s 20 of the ACL	434
□	Key concepts	435
▪	‘Person’	435
▪	‘In trade or commerce’	435
▪	‘Engage in conduct’	435
□	‘Unwritten law from time to time’	435
▪	The unwritten law is the law of equity	435
▪	‘One unified body of unwritten law’	436
▪	The unwritten law evolves over time	436
▪	Levels of unconscionable conduct	436
▪	Categories of unconscionable conduct	437
▪	‘An almost infinite variety of factual scenarios’	438
□	Definition of unconscionable conduct in the unwritten law	438

▪	Unconscionable conduct is better described than defined	438
▪	Unconscionable conduct not a term of art	439
▪	Unconscionable conduct is given its ordinary meaning.....	439
▪	Unconscionable conduct is a strong word	440
▪	Unconscionable conduct sets a high bar.....	441
▪	Unconscionable conduct is a legal term	441
▪	A careful examination of the facts	441
▪	'At the heart' of unconscionable conduct.....	442
□	Elements of unconscionable conduct in the unwritten law	442
▪	Overview of requisite elements	442
□	'Special disadvantage'	446
▪	Incapable of making decisions in own best interest	446
▪	Disadvantage must be 'special'	448
▪	Special disadvantage at the time of conduct	448
▪	Special disadvantage of a 'person'	448
▪	Special disadvantage need not be created by stronger party	449
▪	Victimisation	449
▪	Foolishness or recklessness is insufficient	450
▪	'Drawing a person to drink'	452
▪	Inadequate consideration	453
▪	Mistaken commercial decision-making.....	453
▪	Mere inequality of bargaining power.....	453
▪	Predatory state of mind	454
▪	A real and not hypothetical person.....	455
□	'Knowledge' of the special disadvantage	457
▪	Actual knowledge	457
▪	Knowledge must be of the special disadvantage	457
□	'Taking advantage' of the special disadvantage	458
▪	Reversal of onus of proof	458
▪	The importance of legal advice	459
▪	A solicitor who acts for all parties	461
▪	No knowledge of lack of legal advice	461
▪	'Bad' legal advice	461
▪	Lack of legal advice where assistance is required.....	462
▪	Unconscionable conduct despite obtaining legal advice	462
▪	Legal advice viewed as part of the process.....	463
□	The difference between 'unconscientious' and 'unconscionable' conduct.....	463
■	Section 21 of the ACL.....	464
□	Unconscionable conduct in connection with goods or services.....	464
▪	Statutory unconscionable conduct	464
▪	Legal proceedings and arbitration	468
▪	No regard to circumstances not reasonably foreseeable	469
▪	Regard to conduct before and after commencement of s 21	469
▪	Statutory clarification of the broad scope of s 21.....	469
□	Key concepts	470
▪	'Person'	470
▪	'In trade or commerce'	470
▪	'In connection with'	470
▪	'Supply'	471
▪	'Acquisition'	471
▪	'Goods'	471
▪	'Services'	471
▪	'Engage in conduct'	471
▪	'In all the circumstances'	471
▪	'Have regard to'	472
▪	'Reasonably foreseeable'	473
□	Definition of unconscionable conduct under s 21	473

▪	Statutory unconscionable conduct is better described than defined	473
▪	Statutory unconscionable conduct is not a term of art.....	474
▪	Statutory unconscionable conduct is given its ordinary meaning.....	474
□	Principles of unconscionable conduct under s 21	476
▪	Statutory unconscionable conduct is an open-ended concept.....	476
▪	A 'proper judicial technique'	477
▪	The focus of evaluative analysis.....	477
▪	'Stand back and look at the whole episode'	478
▪	A norm of conduct	478
▪	Some contrast with a 'standard' or 'norm'	479
▪	Moral obloquy	479
▪	A matter of judgment	483
▪	'Unfair, unjust and unreasonable'	484
□	'System of conduct or pattern of behaviour'	485
▪	Parliament's intention.....	485
▪	The focus of 'system of conduct' or 'pattern of behaviour'	489
▪	Ordinary meaning of the words 'system' and 'pattern'.....	489
▪	Meaning of 'system of conduct'	490
▪	Meaning of 'pattern of behaviour'	490
▪	A 'system' or 'pattern' may cover many situations	491
▪	A 'system of conduct' may produce a 'pattern behaviour'.....	491
□	Proving a 'system of conduct or pattern of behaviour'	492
▪	How a system or a pattern is to be proved.....	492
▪	The two-step approach	492
▪	The burden of proof	492
▪	The method of proof	493
▪	The 'random and statistically valid' method	493
▪	The 'accumulation of incidents' method	495
▪	The 'combination' method.....	495
□	Unconscionable conduct and other sharp practices	496
▪	Unconscionable conduct and misleading or deceptive conduct	497
▪	Unconscionable conduct and breach of contract	498
▪	Unconscionable conduct and negotiations	499
▪	Unconscionable conduct and unsolicited consumer agreements.....	500
■	Section 22 of the ACL	502
□	Matters the court may have regard to for the purposes of s 21	502
▪	A non-exhaustive list of factors	502
▪	No 'magic' formula	504
▪	Must not 'pick and choose'	505
□	Guiding factors of statutory unconscionable conduct	506
▪	Relative strengths of the bargaining positions	506
▪	Reasonably necessary conditions to protect legitimate interests	507
▪	Understanding documents relating to supply	508
▪	Undue influence, pressure or unfair tactics	508
▪	Meaning of undue influence.....	508
▪	A special category of undue influence.....	509
▪	Undue influence and unconscionable conduct	511
▪	Pressure	512
▪	Unfair tactics	513
▪	Availability of substitutes	514
▪	Consistent conduct with other like customers	514
▪	Applicable industry codes	515
▪	Other industry codes	515
▪	Unreasonably failed to disclose risks and other intended conduct	516
▪	Willingness to negotiate terms and conditions of the contract	516
▪	Terms and conditions of the contract	517
▪	Conduct complying with the terms and conditions	517

- Conduct in connection with the commercial relationship 517
 - Contractual right to unilaterally vary the contract 517
 - Acting in good faith 518
 - Good faith in the context of financial services 518
 - Good faith in the context of franchise law 518
 - Good faith in the context of contract law 519
 - Good faith in the context of insurance law 521
 - Good faith in the context of administrative law 522
- Section 22A of the ACL 522
 - Presumptions relating to whether representations are misleading 522
- Annexure A 522
 - Table of cases on unconscientious exploitation of special disadvantage 522
- Annexure B 525
 - Table of cases that describe unconscionable conduct 525

Chapter 11: Unfair Contract Terms

- Introduction 530
 - Background of the UCT regime 530
 - History of the UCT regime 530
 - Reasons for introducing the UCT regime 532
 - ‘Consumer contracts’ 532
 - ‘Small business contracts’ 533
 - Difference between UCT regime and unconscionable conduct 534
 - Conceptionally distinct concepts 534
- Section 23(1) of the ACL 534
 - Unfair terms of consumer contracts and small business contracts 534
 - Key concepts 538
 - ‘Term’ 538
 - ‘Void’ 539
 - ‘Contract’ 539
- Section 23(2) of the ACL 539
 - Severability of an unfair term 539
- Section 23(2A) of the ACL 540
 - Contravention for making an unfair term 540
- Section 23(2B) of the ACL 540
 - Separate contravention for each unfair term 540
- Section 23(2C) of the ACL 541
 - Contravention for applying or relying on an unfair term 541
- Section 23(3) of the ACL 541
 - Meaning of ‘consumer contract’ 541
 - Key concepts 542
 - ‘Supply’ 542
 - ‘Acquisition’ 542
 - ‘Goods’ 542
 - ‘Services’ 542
 - ‘Sale or grant’ 542
 - ‘Interest in land’ 543
 - ‘Individual’ 543
 - ‘Wholly or predominantly’ 543
 - ‘Personal, domestic or household use or consumption’ 544
- Section 23(4) of the ACL 544
 - Meaning of ‘small business contract’ 544
- Section 23(5) of the ACL 550
 - Calculation of number of employees 550
 - Key concepts 550
 - ‘Casual employee’ 550

▪ 'Part-time employee'	551
▪ 'Regular and systematic basis'	551
■ Sections 23(6) and (7) of the ACL	554
□ A party's turnover.....	554
■ Section 24(1) of the ACL	554
□ Meaning of 'unfair'	554
□ The three limb test for 'unfair'	564
▪ 'Significant imbalance' in rights and obligations.....	564
▪ 'Not reasonably necessary' to protect 'legitimate interests'	571
▪ Meaning of 'reasonably necessary'	571
▪ Meaning of 'legitimate interests'	572
▪ 'Detriment'	573
■ Sections 24(2) and (3) of the ACL	576
□ Three additional considerations regarding 'unfair' terms	576
▪ 'Such matters as it thinks relevant'	576
▪ The extent the 'term is transparent'	577
▪ The 'contract as a whole'	582
■ Section 24(4) of the ACL	583
□ Rebuttal presumption: Protection of legitimate interests.....	583
▪ Reversal of onus of proof	583
■ Section 25 of the ACL.....	584
□ Examples of terms that may be unfair	584
▪ A non-exhaustive list of terms for statutory guidance	584
■ Section 26 of the ACL	586
□ Terms that are exempted	586
▪ An exhaustive list of exempted terms.....	586
▪ Terms that 'defines the main subject matter'	587
▪ Terms that 'sets the upfront price'	588
▪ Terms 'required, or expressly permitted' by law	590
▪ Terms 'included in the contract' by operation of a law	591
■ Section 27 of the ACL.....	591
□ Meaning of 'standard form contract'	591
▪ No definition of 'standard form contract'	591
▪ A question of fact	592
■ Section 27(1) of the ACL	592
□ Rebuttable presumption: Standard form contract.....	592
▪ Contract presumed to be in 'standard form'	592
■ Section 27(2) of the ACL	594
□ Factors a court must take into consideration	594
▪ Whether one of the parties has all or most of the bargaining power	594
▪ Whether one of the parties has made another contract, in the same or substantially similar terms, prepared by that party, and, if so, how many such contracts that party has made... 594
▪ Whether the contract was prepared by one party before any discussion occurred..... 595
▪ Whether another party was required either to accept or reject the terms of the contract	595
▪ Whether another party was given an effective opportunity to negotiate the terms of the contract	595
▪ Whether the terms of the contract take into account the specific characteristics of another party or the particular transaction..... 596
▪ Any other matters prescribed by the regulations..... 596
■ Section 27(3) of the ACL	597
□ Effective opportunity to negotiate	597
■ Section 28 of the ACL.....	597
□ Contracts that are exempted.....	597
■ Section 28A of the ACL	598
□ Contracts connected with financial markets that are exempted	598

Chapter 12: Specific Unfair Practices

■ Introduction	601
□ Overview of specific unfair practices	601
■ Section 32 of the ACL	601
□ Offering rebates, gifts, prizes, etc.	601
▪ Offering free items without the intention to provide them	601
■ Section 35 of the ACL	604
□ Bait advertising	604
▪ The practice of bait advertising	604
■ Section 36 of the ACL	606
□ Wrongly accepting payment	606
▪ Accepting payment without intention of supply	606
■ Section 39 of the ACL	611
□ Unsolicited credit and debit cards	611
▪ Supplying plastic cards without request	611
■ Section 40 of the ACL	613
□ Unsolicited goods or services	613
▪ The practice of false billing	613
■ Section 41 of the ACL	617
□ Liability of recipient (and ownership rights) for unsolicited goods	617
▪ An interpretative provision	617
■ Section 42 of the ACL	619
□ Liability of recipient for unsolicited services	619
▪ An interpretative provision	619
■ Section 43 of the ACL	620
□ Unauthorised entries or advertisements	620
▪ Advertising without permission	620
■ Section 44 of the ACL	622
□ Pyramid selling schemes	622
▪ One of the oldest scams	622
▪ Pyramid scheme vs Ponzi scheme	624
▪ Pyramid scheme vs Referral selling scheme	624
■ Section 45 of the ACL	624
□ Meaning of pyramid scheme	624
▪ Characteristics of a pyramid scheme	624
■ Section 46 of the ACL	626
□ Marketing schemes as pyramid schemes	626
▪ An interpretative provision	626
■ Section 47 of the ACL	628
□ Multiple pricing	628
▪ The practice of dual pricing	628
■ Section 48 of the ACL	630
□ Component pricing (and 'drip pricing')	630
▪ 'Tell the whole story about price'	630
■ Section 49 of the ACL	637
□ Referral selling	637
▪ No assurance of a benefit	637
■ Section 50 of the ACL	639
□ Undue harassment and coercion	639
▪ A provision of wide import	639
▪ 'Undue'	640
▪ 'Harassment'	640
▪ 'Coercion'	640
■ Section 55B of the CCA	641
□ Payment surcharges must not be excessive	641
▪ Surcharge must reflect actual cost	641
■ Section 55C of the CCA	642

□ Surcharge Information Notices	642
▪ Information powers	642
▪ Infringement notice powers	642

Chapter 13: Consumer Guarantees

■ Consumer guarantees	646
□ Background	646
▪ Meaning of consumer guarantees	646
▪ History of consumer guarantees	646
▪ Reasons for consumer guarantees	647
□ Key concepts	647
▪ 'Supply'	647
▪ 'Goods'	647
▪ 'Services'	647
▪ 'Sale by auction'	647
▪ 'In trade or commerce'	647
▪ 'Person'	647
▪ 'Consumer'	647
▪ 'Manufacturer'	647
□ The five 'Nos' of consumer guarantees	647
▪ No contravention	647
▪ No 'covering the field'	647
▪ No 'contracting out'	648
▪ No effect of choice of law clause	649
▪ No 'refund signs'	650
■ Consumer guarantees in relation to goods	650
□ Application of consumer guarantees	650
▪ Nine guarantees in relation to goods	650
■ Section 51 of the ACL	650
□ Guarantee as to title	650
▪ A right to dispose of the property in the goods	650
▪ A supply of limited title	651
▪ The nemo dat quod non habet rule	651
▪ Rules of transfer of title	652
■ Section 52 of the ACL	652
□ Guarantee as to undisturbed possession	652
▪ Unlawful physical interference	652
■ Section 53 of the ACL	653
□ Guarantee as to undisclosed securities etc	653
▪ Goods are free from any security, charge or encumbrance	653
■ Section 54 of the ACL	655
□ Guarantee as to acceptable quality	655
▪ A multi-facet test	655
▪ Onus of proof	656
▪ Requisite elements	657
▪ Time when acceptable quality is determined	657
▪ Acceptable quality can be determined by mere symptoms of a fault	658
▪ Acceptable quality can be determined on a common basis	658
▪ The former reference to 'merchantable quality'	658
▪ Similarity between 'merchantable quality' and 'acceptable quality'	658
▪ Acceptable quality	659
▪ Hidden defects	660
□ Fit for all purposes	660
▪ All normal purposes	660
▪ Consideration of relevant matters	661
□ Acceptable in appearance and finish	661

- The fineness, smoothness, or ‘final touches’ of the goods..... 661
 - Consideration of relevant matters 662
 - Free from defects..... 662
 - Latent and patent defects 662
 - Design, manufacturing and instructional defects 663
 - Consideration of relevant matters 663
 - Safe..... 664
 - A suggested definition of ‘safe’ 664
 - ‘Safe’ does not mean absolutely free from risk 664
 - ‘Safe’ is measured in an absolute sense..... 664
 - ‘Safe’ is not based on negligence 665
 - Consideration of relevant matters 665
 - Unacceptable quality due to ‘inherent safety risk’ 666
 - Durable..... 667
 - A suggested definition of ‘durable’ 667
 - Consideration of relevant matters 668
 - ‘Goods do not fail to be acceptable quality if...’ 669
 - Faults are specifically drawn to the consumer’s attention 669
 - Faults are listed on written notice 669
 - Consumer causes the goods to become of unacceptable quality 669
 - Consumer fails to take reasonable steps 670
 - Abnormal use 670
 - Examination ought to have revealed 670
- Section 55 of the ACL..... 671
 - Guarantee as to fitness for any disclosed purpose etc..... 671
 - Two guarantees in one..... 671
 - Requisite elements..... 672
 - ‘Reasonably fit’ 673
 - ‘Disclosed purpose’ 674
 - ‘Makes known’ 674
 - ‘Reliance’ 675
- Section 56 of the ACL..... 676
 - Guarantee relating to the supply of goods by description 676
 - A consumer should receive what was bargained for 676
 - Requisite elements..... 676
 - ‘Description’ 676
 - ‘Description’ is limited to ‘contractual description’ 677
 - Identification of goods 677
 - Quality of goods 678
 - Inspection of goods 678
- Section 57 of the ACL..... 680
 - Guarantees relating to the supply of goods by sample or demonstration model 680
 - Three guarantees in one 680
 - ‘By reference to’ 680
 - ‘Sample’ 681
 - ‘Demonstration model’ 681
 - Correspond with sample or demonstration model..... 681
 - Reasonable opportunity to compare 682
 - Goods are free from defects 682
- Section 58 of the ACL..... 683
 - Guarantee as to repairs and spare parts 683
 - ‘Reasonable, reasonable and reasonable’ 683
 - Requisite elements..... 683
 - ‘Reasonable action’ 683
 - ‘Reasonably available’ 684
 - ‘Reasonable period’ 684
 - Exemption..... 685

■ Section 59 of the ACL.....	685
□ Guarantee as to express warranties	685
▪ Express warranties	685
▪ Warranties against defects.....	687
▪ Extended warranties	688
▪ Store policy	688
■ Consumer guarantees in relation to services.....	689
□ Application of consumer guarantees.....	689
▪ Three guarantees in relation to services.....	689
■ Section 60 of the ACL.....	689
□ Guarantee as to due care and skill	689
▪ ‘Due care and skill’	689
▪ Onus of proof	689
▪ ‘Careful, skillful, and workmanlike manner’	689
▪ Common law standard of negligence.....	690
▪ The ‘acceptable level of skill’	691
▪ Due care and skill not necessarily co-extensive with contractual obligations.....	691
▪ Time of performance of service	691
▪ Professions, trades and industries	692
■ Section 61 of the ACL.....	694
□ Guarantees as to fitness for a particular purpose etc	694
▪ Two guarantees in one.....	694
▪ Requisite elements.....	695
▪ ‘Reasonably fit’	695
▪ ‘Particular purpose’	696
▪ Analysis of reasonably fit for particular purpose	697
▪ ‘Reliance’	697
■ Section 62 of the ACL.....	698
□ Guarantee as to reasonable time for supply	698
▪ Services must be supplied within a reasonable time	698
▪ ‘Reasonable time’	699
■ Miscellaneous rights and responsibilities.....	700
□ Proof of transactions.....	700
□ Consumer may request an itemised bill	700
□ Prescribed requirements for warranties against defects	700
▪ Regulation 90.....	700
□ Repairers must comply with prescribed requirements	701
▪ Regulation 91.....	701

Chapter 14: Consumer Guarantees Remedies

■ Consumer guarantee remedies	703
□ Background	703
▪ The type of remedies available	703
▪ No ‘contracting out’	704
▪ Limitation of liability of services under state or territory law	704
▪ Representative action by the regulator	705
■ Remedies against supplier of goods.....	705
□ Three ‘pathways’ to a main remedy	705
▪ Refund, repair or replacement.....	705
□ Major failure	705
▪ Definition of major failure.....	705
▪ Multiple minor failures deemed as a major failure	706
▪ Goods would not have been acquired	706
▪ An incorrect interpretation of a major failure	707
▪ Different objective tests for major failure and acceptable quality.....	707
▪ Goods depart from description	708

- Goods depart from sample or demonstration model..... 708
 - Goods are substantially unfit for a purpose..... 708
 - Goods are unfit for a disclosed purpose known 708
 - Goods are unsafe..... 709
 - Minor failure 709
 - No definition of minor failure 709
 - Action against suppliers of goods 709
 - Failure to comply with consumer guarantees 709
 - Remedy available for a minor failure 710
 - How suppliers may remedy a minor failure 710
 - Remedy available for a major failure 710
 - When consumers are not entitled to reject goods 710
 - The rejection period 711
 - The rejection period is a question of fact 711
 - Rejection period starts from the date of supply 712
 - Relevant failure is the failure to comply with a ‘guarantee’ 712
 - Failure to comply with guarantee ‘becomes apparent’ 712
 - Rejection period in relation to patent failures 713
 - Rejection period in relation to latent failures 713
 - Rejection period in relation to new and used goods 713
 - Rejection period in relation to customary inspections 714
 - Rejection period and ‘congeries of defects’ 714
 - Acting inconsistently to the rejection notice 714
 - An apparent anomaly 714
 - Consequences of rejecting goods 715
 - Replaced goods 715
 - Termination of contracts for services connected with rejected goods 716
 - Rights of gift recipients..... 716
 - Main remedies may not always be appropriate 716
 - Compensation for loss or damage 717
- Remedies against supplier of services..... 719
 - Major failure 719
 - Definition of major failure 719
 - Multiple minor failures deemed as a major failure..... 719
 - Services would not have been acquired 720
 - Services are substantially unfit for a purpose 720
 - Services are unfit for a particular purpose known 720
 - Services do not achieve the desired result in nature, quality, state or condition 720
 - Services creates an unsafe situation 721
 - Minor failure 721
 - No definition of minor failure 721
 - Action against suppliers of services 721
 - Failure to comply with consumer guarantees..... 721
 - Remedy available for a minor failure 721
 - Remedies available for a major failure 722
 - Termination of contracts for the supply of services 722
 - Termination of contracts for goods connected with terminated services 722
 - Compensation for loss or damage 723
- Remedies against manufacturers of goods 723
 - Action for damages against manufacturers of goods 723
 - Limited remedies against manufacturers of goods 723
 - Non-compliance with guarantee as to acceptable quality 723
 - Non-compliance with guarantee relating to the supply of goods by description 724
 - Non-compliance with guarantees relating to spare parts and express warranties..... 724
 - Recovery of damages against a manufacturer of goods 724
 - Reduction in value 724
 - Reasonably foreseeable loss 725

■	Manufacturers' liability to suppliers	726
□	Indemnification of suppliers by manufacturers	726
▪	Indemnification for loss or damage	726
▪	Indemnification for costs incurred	726
▪	Time period to commence action	726
▪	Limitation of liability of manufacturer to the supplier in certain circumstances	726

Chapter 15: Manufacturers' Liability

■	Background of manufacturers' liability	728
□	Overview	728
▪	The manufacturers' liability regime	728
□	History of manufacturers' liability	729
▪	Claims made under the common law	729
▪	The introduction of a legislative regime	730
■	Section 138 of the ACL	730
□	Liability for loss or damage suffered by an injured individual	730
□	Key concepts	732
▪	'Manufacturer'	732
▪	'Goods'	732
▪	'Individual'	732
▪	'Supplies'	732
▪	'In trade or commerce'	732
▪	'Safety defect'	732
▪	'Loss or damage'	737
■	Section 139 of the ACL	737
□	Liability for loss or damage suffered by a person other than an injured individual	737
□	Key concepts	738
▪	'Person'	738
▪	'Business or professional relationship'	739
■	Section 140 of the ACL	739
□	Liability for loss or damage suffered by a person if other goods are destroyed or damaged	739
□	Key concepts	740
▪	'Personal, domestic or household use or consumption'	740
■	Section 141 of the ACL	740
□	Liability for loss or damage suffered by a person if land, buildings or fixtures are destroyed or damaged	740
□	Key concepts	741
▪	'Land, buildings or fixtures'	741
▪	'Acquired'	741
▪	'Private use'	741
■	Section 142 of the ACL	742
□	Defences to defective goods actions	742
▪	Four statutory defences	742
▪	'No safety defect exists at time of supply'	742
▪	'Compliance with a mandatory standard'	743
▪	'State of scientific or technical knowledge'	743
▪	'Goods were comprised in other goods'	745
■	Section 143 of the ACL	745
□	Time for commencing defective goods actions	745
■	Section 144 of the ACL	745
□	Liability joint and several	745
■	Section 145 of the ACL	746
□	Survival of action	746
■	Section 146 of the ACL	746
□	No defective goods actions where workers' compensation law etc. applies	746

■ Section 147 of the ACL.....	747
□ Unidentified manufacturer	747
■ Section 148 of the ACL.....	747
□ Commonwealth liability for goods that are defective only because of compliance with Commonwealth mandatory standard	747
■ Section 149 of the ACL.....	748
□ Representative actions by the regulator	748
■ Section 150 of the ACL.....	748
□ No 'contracting out'	748

Chapter 16: Private Remedies

■ Section 236 of the ACL.....	750
□ Action for damage.....	750
▪ Construed to give the fullest relief	750
▪ A statutory right and a remedy	751
▪ At least five discrete elements	751
□ Assessment of damages.....	751
▪ Compensation is the cardinal concept	751
▪ The 'gist of the action'	752
▪ Date of assessment	752
▪ Once-and-for-all rule	752
▪ Estimation of damages	753
□ Common law principles.....	753
▪ 'A solution best adapted'	753
▪ Objectives of damages in common law	754
▪ Careful to avoid drawing close analogies with common law	754
▪ Common law damages can be a useful guide	755
□ Causation	755
▪ Common sense test	755
▪ Some doubts about the common sense test	756
▪ The rejection of the 'but for' test	756
▪ Multiple sufficient causes	756
▪ Break the chain of causation	757
▪ Contributory negligence	758
▪ Reliance	758
▪ Reliance through a third party	759
▪ Proof of reliance not always required	760
□ Remoteness of damage	760
▪ Reasonably foreseeable loss	760
▪ Direct and indirect loss	761
□ Mitigation.....	761
▪ Reasonable mitigation of loss	761
□ Loss or damage	761
▪ No narrow meaning	761
▪ Plaintiff must be worse off	762
□ Economic loss.....	763
▪ Types of economic loss	763
▪ The real value of an asset minus price paid test	763
▪ No transaction test	764
▪ Consequential loss	764
▪ Expectation loss	764
▪ Reliance loss	765
▪ Commercial reputation	765
▪ Individual reputation	765
▪ Loss of opportunity	766
▪ Death and personal injury	766

▪	Loss of earning capacity	766
▪	Medical, nursing and hospital expenses	767
▪	Gratuitous attendant care	767
▪	Loss of superannuation entitlements	768
▪	Discount rate	768
▪	Interest	769
□	Non-economic loss.....	769
▪	Death and personal injury	769
▪	Pain and suffering	769
▪	Loss of amenities of life	770
▪	Loss of expectation of life	771
▪	Disfigurement	771
▪	Structured settlements	771
□	Types of damages	771
▪	Special damages	771
▪	General damages	772
▪	Substantial damages	772
▪	Nominal damages	772
▪	Exemplary damages	772
▪	Aggravated damages	773
□	Limitation period.....	773
▪	Cause of action accrues	773
▪	No power to extend period of limitation	774
▪	No waiver of period of limitation	775
▪	Time to determine period of limitation	775

Chapter 17: Public Remedies

■	Section 224 of the ACL.....	779
□	Pecuniary penalties.....	779
□	The nature and standard of pecuniary penalties	781
▪	Meaning of civil pecuniary penalty	781
▪	The question of punishment	781
□	The objective of pecuniary penalties.....	782
▪	The primary objective is deterrence	782
▪	Specific deterrence.....	783
▪	General deterrence	784
▪	The question of punishment	784
□	Application of pecuniary penalties	784
▪	A penalty in respect of each act or omission	784
□	Assessment of pecuniary penalties	784
▪	The process of assessment.....	784
▪	Instinctive synthesis	785
▪	Methodology of assessment is not an 'exact science'	785
▪	Methodology of assessment is not a 'mathematical exactitude'	786
▪	Utility of precedents.....	787
▪	Multiple contraventions.....	788
▪	Maximum penalties ('worst possible case').....	788
▪	Higher than the statutory maximum penalty	790
□	Principles of assessment of pecuniary penalties	792
▪	Course of conduct principle	792
▪	Oppressive principle.....	795
▪	Parity principle	796
▪	Totality principle.....	796
□	Penalty factors for assessment.....	797
▪	The mandatory factors	797
▪	The 'French' factors.....	798

▪	The nature of the contravening conduct	800
▪	The extent of the contravening conduct.....	800
▪	The amount of loss or damage caused	801
▪	The level of compensation for loss or damage caused.....	802
▪	The size of the contravener.....	802
▪	The financial position of the contravener	804
▪	The inability of the contravener to pay the pecuniary penalty	804
▪	Personal hardship.....	806
▪	The financial gain of the contravener	806
▪	The degree of market power of the contravener	806
▪	The deliberateness, systematic nature and covertness of the contravener	807
▪	The character, competence and honesty of the contravener	808
▪	The level of appreciation, remorse and contrition of the contravener	808
▪	The corporate culture of the contravener	809
▪	The level of seniority of the contravener	809
▪	The level of cooperation of the contravener	810
▪	The level of admission of the contravener.....	812
▪	The reliance on incorrect legal advice.....	813
▪	Previous contraventions or similar conduct in the past	814
▪	The role of parent corporations	815
▪	The relevance of penalties imposed in overseas jurisdictions.....	816
▪	The circumstances of the contravening conduct	817
□	Additional principles of assessment of pecuniary penalties	817
▪	Attempt to contravene.....	817
▪	Absence of evidence of loss or damage.....	817
▪	Agreed pecuniary penalties.....	818
▪	The court is not a ‘rubber stamp’	822
▪	Past confusion about agreed pecuniary penalties	822
▪	Appeals on penalties	823
▪	Pecuniary penalties are not a provable debt	825
▪	Seeking pecuniary penalties when respondent is in liquidation	826
▪	Seeking pecuniary penalties when respondent has entered into a deed of company arrangement.....	827
▪	Payment of penalties in instalments.....	828
▪	Stay of penalties	829
▪	Relationship between pecuniary penalties and disqualification orders.....	830
▪	Relationship between pecuniary penalties and non-pecuniary orders.....	830
▪	Relationship between pecuniary penalties and costs.....	831
□	Amounts of pecuniary penalties.....	831
▪	Penalty table for body corporates.....	831
▪	Penalty table for non-body corporates	845
■	Section 225 of the ACL.....	849
□	Pecuniary penalties and offence.....	849
■	Section 226 of the ACL.....	851
□	Defence	851
■	Section 227 of the ACL.....	852
□	Preference must be given to compensation for victims.....	852
■	Section 228 of the ACL	854
□	Civil action for the recovery of pecuniary penalties	854
■	Section 229 of the ACL.....	855
□	Indemnification of officers.....	855
□	The reasons why s 229 was inserted into the ACL.....	857
■	Section 230 of the ACL.....	857
□	Certain indemnities not authorised and certain documents void.....	857
■	Section 231 of the ACL (the ‘mystery’ provision)	858
□	Application of s 229 to a person other than a body corporate	858
■	Section 239 of the ACL.....	858

□	Orders to redress loss or damage suffered by non-party consumers.....	858
▪	Non-party redress orders.....	858
▪	Wide discretionary power to make a non-party redress order.....	860
▪	Determining whether to make a non-party redress order.....	860
■	Section 246 of the ACL.....	860
□	Non-punitive orders.....	860
▪	Protective orders.....	860
▪	Community service orders.....	861
▪	Compliance program, training and internal review orders.....	862
▪	Disclosure orders.....	865
▪	Corrective advertising orders.....	865
■	Section 247 of the ACL.....	869
□	Adverse publicity orders.....	869
▪	Punitive orders.....	869
▪	Key differences between adverse publicity orders and corrective advertisements.....	870
▪	Key reasons why a court may decline to make an adverse publicity order.....	872
■	Section 248 of the ACL.....	873
□	Disqualification orders.....	873
□	History of disqualification orders.....	875
▪	The need to deter 'white collar' crimes.....	875
□	The nature of disqualification orders.....	876
▪	The meaning of 'managing' corporations.....	876
▪	The meaning of managing 'corporations'.....	879
□	The objectives of disqualification orders.....	880
▪	Protective.....	880
▪	Specific deterrence.....	881
▪	General deterrence.....	881
▪	Punitive.....	882
□	Assessment of disqualification orders.....	883
▪	The process of assessment.....	883
▪	Methodology of assessment is not an 'exact science'.....	883
▪	Methodology of assessment is not a 'neat arithmetic algorithm'.....	883
▪	Utility of precedents.....	883
▪	Disqualification order may be made for single contravention.....	884
▪	Disqualification order may be made for single owner and manager.....	884
□	Principles of disqualification orders.....	884
▪	Course of conduct principle.....	884
▪	Parity principle.....	884
▪	Totality principle.....	884
□	Disqualification order factors for assessment.....	884
▪	The 'Santow' factors.....	884
□	Aggravating and mitigating factors.....	888
▪	Aggravating factors.....	888
▪	Mitigating factors.....	890
□	Additional principles of disqualification orders.....	891
▪	Agreed disqualification orders.....	891
▪	Relationship between disqualification orders and pecuniary penalties.....	892
▪	Relationship between disqualification orders and adverse publicity orders.....	892
▪	Two regulators seeking disqualification orders.....	892
▪	Re-appointment to manage corporations.....	892
▪	Stay of disqualification orders.....	893
▪	Relationship between application of leave and application for stay.....	894
□	Periods of time disqualified.....	894
■	Section 249 of the ACL.....	901
□	Privilege against exposure to penalty or forfeiture.....	901
□	The reasons why s 249 was inserted into the ACL.....	902
▪	Privilege against exposure to penalty.....	903

- Privilege against self-incrimination 904
 - Section 137F of the CCA 904
 - Freezing orders 904
 - History of freezing orders 907
 - A ‘frozen accident’ 907
 - Background to freezing orders 908
 - Purpose of freezing orders 908
 - Nature of freezing orders 908
 - Freezing orders not intended to be a security for judgment 909
 - Duration of freezing orders 909
 - Maximum amount of freezing orders 910
 - ‘Carve outs’ to freezing orders 910
 - Freezing orders on third parties 910
 - ‘World-wide’ freezing orders 911
 - Service outside Australia 912
 - Elements of freezing orders 912
 - A good arguable case 913
 - Danger of judgment being frustrated 914
 - Balance of convenience 915
 - Undertaking to the court 915
 - Court’s discretion 916
 - Ancillary orders 916
 - Appointment of receiver, trustee and/or manager 917
 - Section 137H of the CCA0 917
 - Findings and admissions of fact in proceedings to be evidence 917
 - Clarification on ‘admissions of fact’ orders 920
 - Utility of ‘finding of fact’ or ‘admission of fact’ orders 921

Chapter 18: Private/Public Remedies

- Section 232 of the ACL 924
 - Injunctions 924
 - Discretionary power to grant injunctions 924
 - Widest possible injunctive powers 925
 - Power not confined to equity 925
 - Broadening the power to grant an injunction 926
 - Limitations on power to grant injunctions 926
 - Objectives of injunctions 927
 - Types of injunctions 928
 - Specific types of mandatory injunctions 928
 - Relevant factors when granting an injunction 928
 - Principles of injunctions 928
 - Injunctions must serve a useful purpose 928
 - Injunctions must be in clear and precise terms 929
 - Injunctions must be more than a mere recitation of the law 929
 - Injunctions must not be too wide or too narrow 930
 - Foster style injunctions 930
 - Must avoid multiple overlapping or connected injunctions 931
 - Injunctions are not appropriate in all cases 931
 - The time period of injunctions 932
 - Breach of injunctions 932
 - Justiciability of contempt 932
 - Nature of contempt 933
 - Standard of proof 933
 - Elements of contempt 934
 - Intention 934
 - Classes of contempt 934

- Civil and criminal contempt..... 935
 - Remedies for contempt 935
 - Imprisonment 936
- Section 233 of the ACL..... 937
 - Consent injunctions 937
 - An alternative source of power..... 937
- Section 234 of the ACL..... 937
 - Interim injunctions..... 937
 - Wide discretion to grant interim injunctions 937
 - Difference between interim and interlocutory injunctions 938
 - Elements 938
 - A prima facie case 939
 - Damages are an inadequate remedy 939
 - Balance of convenience..... 940
- Section 235 of the ACL..... 941
 - Variation and discharge or injunctions..... 941
 - A wide power, but not a ‘new and unfettered discretion’ 941
- Extraterritorial injunctions 942
 - Power to grant extraterritorial injunctions..... 942
 - Additional factors 942
 - Comity 942
 - Forum non conveniens..... 942
 - Enforcement..... 942
 - In personam..... 945
- Section 237 of the ACL..... 945
 - Compensation orders..... 945
 - No restrictive interpretation 945
 - Limits to the broad power 946
 - Broad power not confined to common law 947
- Section 238 of the ACL..... 948
 - Compensation orders arising out of other proceedings..... 948
 - The court’s alternative authority 948
- Section 243 of the ACL..... 949
 - Kind of orders that may be made 949
 - Non-exhaustive list of orders 949
 - Declarations (rescission) 950
 - Variation of contracts (rectification)..... 951
 - Refusing to enforce contracts 952
 - Refund money or return property 952
 - Order to force payment 952
 - Repair or replace parts of goods 952
 - Specific performance..... 952
 - Varying or terminating an instrument 953
 - Compensation orders only..... 953
 - No account of profits..... 953
 - No restitution 954
- Section 21 of the FCA 954
 - Declarations 954
 - Wide discretionary power 954
 - Meaning of declaration 955
 - Elements 955
 - Question must be real..... 955
 - Real interest in relief 956
 - Proper contradictor 956
 - Reasons for and against making declarations 957
 - Rationale for making declarations 957
 - Rationale for refusing declarations 958

□	Content of declarations	958
▪	Declarations must be informative	958
▪	Declarations must be simple and clear	959
□	Declarations by consent.....	959
▪	Must be sufficient factual foundation.....	959
■	Section 250 of the ACL.....	960
□	Declarations relating to consumer contracts and small business contracts	960
▪	Power to declare a term unfair	960
▪	Wide discretionary power	960
▪	Rationale for making declarations	960

Chapter 19: Enforcement Powers

■	Section 218 of the ACL.....	964
□	Enforceable undertakings	964
▪	Statutory instruments	964
▪	'In connection with a matter'	965
▪	Guidance on when an undertaking is appropriate	965
▪	Acceptable content of an undertaking.....	966
▪	Unacceptable content of an undertaking	966
▪	Varying or withdrawing an undertaking	966
▪	Breach of an undertaking.....	967
▪	Relied for breach of an undertaking	968
■	Section 219 of the ACL.....	968
□	Substantiation notices	968
□	Extension of period to comply	970
□	Compliance with notices.....	970
□	False or misleading information	971
■	Section 223 of the ACL.....	971
□	Public warning notices	971
▪	A 'name and shame' tool	971
▪	Elements of a PWN.....	972
▪	Considerations to issue a PWN	972
▪	A chance to respond.....	973
■	Section 134 of the CCA	973
□	Infringement notices	973
▪	A penalty notice	973
▪	When an IN is likely to be issued.....	974
▪	When an IN is less likely to be issued.....	974
□	Issuing an IN	974
▪	Issuing multiple INs	975
▪	Issuing an IN in conjunction with an EU	975
□	Matters to be included in an IN	975
□	Amount of penalty	976
□	Effect of compliance with an IN	977
□	Failure to comply with an IN	978
□	Compliance period for an IN	978
□	Withdrawal of an IN	979
■	Section 155 of the CCA	980
□	Power to obtain information, documents and evidence.....	980
▪	A 'powerful investigative tool'	980
▪	The wide power of s 155 notices	983
▪	Purpose of s 155 notices	984
□	'Reason to believe'.....	985
▪	'Actual belief' and 'reasonable grounds or cause of the belief'	985
▪	'Any such information'	986
□	'Matter'	986

▪	The two-fold purpose	986
▪	Body of facts	987
▪	Matter must be sufficiently identified	987
▪	Matter is not required to be 'pleaded'	989
▪	Matter that 'may constitute' a contravention	989
▪	No need to prove a contravention	990
□	Burden of s 155 notices	990
▪	Notice must be issued in good faith	990
▪	Harsh, unreasonable or oppressive	991
▪	A necessary relationship	991
▪	Reasonable time to respond to a notice	992
▪	The court is not the investigator	992
▪	Variation of s 155 notices	993
▪	Reason to believe minute	993
▪	Severance	993
□	General requirements of a s 155 notice	993
▪	Addresses	993
▪	Form and content	994
▪	Certainty of a 155 notice	995
▪	Process of a s 155 notice	996
▪	Service of a s 155 notice	996
▪	Information, documents and evidence given at ACCC premises	997
□	Responding to a s 155 notice	997
▪	'Information'	997
▪	'Document'	998
▪	A degree of 'detective' investigation	998
□	Contravening s 155 of the CCA	999
▪	Refusing or failing to comply with a notice	999
▪	Court order directing the person to comply with the notice	1000
▪	Knowingly furnishing information or giving evidence that is false or misleading	1000
▪	Not capable of complying with a notice	1000
▪	A reasonable search for documents	1001
▪	The 'reasonable search' defence	1001
□	Section 155 and litigation	1001
▪	Time limit to issue a s 155 notice	1001
▪	Past uncertainty in relation to time limits	1002
▪	Discovery	1002
▪	Fishing	1003
□	Privilege against self-incrimination or exposure to a civil penalty	1003
▪	Must furnish information, produce documents and answer questions	1003
▪	Privilege does not apply to corporations	1004
▪	Privilege does not apply to documents in existence	1004
▪	State and territory Cabinet meetings and deliberations	1004
□	Legal professional privilege	1004
▪	The nature of legal professional privilege	1004
▪	Legal professional privilege not abrogated under s 155(1)	1005
▪	Legal advice privilege	1005
▪	Litigation privilege	1005
▪	Dominant purpose	1006
▪	Reasonable anticipation	1006
▪	Passing the privilege communicated through an agent	1006
▪	Legal professional privilege does not protect all communications	1006
□	Oral examinations	1006
▪	Examinations are conducted in private	1006
▪	Date of examination	1007
▪	Time of examination	1007
▪	Duration of examination	1007

- No reimbursement 1007
- Examinee must give evidence under oath or affirmation..... 1007
- Examinee not to disclose the content of the examination 1008
- Legal representation of the examinee 1008
- The role of legal representation of the examinee 1008
- Legal representation of the examinee must undertake not to disclose..... 1009
- Third parties excluded 1009
- Adjournment 1009
- Transcripts 1009
- Discovery of transcripts..... 1010
- Use of transcripts as evidence 1010